Specially designed and fully underwritten by RHB Insurance Berhad, the insurance plan is dedicated to foreign maids working in Malaysia. The insurance plan is beneficial to both employers and maids as it provides a wide range of benefits, including personal accident coverage and also additional attractive value proposition.

"We believe that this product will receive an encouraging response from Malaysians who employ maids in their home. Up until May 2009, a total of 300,000 foreign maids are working in Malaysia, as reported by the Ministry of Human Resource. Therefore, we understand the concern of the employers on the well-being of their maids primarily protection should the unwanted happen to the maids. This strategic partnership with RHBI gives an opportunity for PMB to offer a wide range of insurance products and services to complement our customers' needs as it creates more value and gives them the convenience of a one-stop centre," said Dato' Syed Faisal Albar, Group Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer of Pos Malaysia Berhad.

The Maid Protector Insurance is deemed affordable, with a premium from as low as RM50 annually, and offers a wide range of the following benefits:

- Accidental Death and Permanent Disablement up to RM30,000
- Reimbursement of Medical Expenses which is due to accident
- Reimbursement of hospitalization and surgical expenses in the event of the Insured Person being hospitalized due to accident
- Weekly Hospital Income Benefit
- Reimbursement of Repatriation Expenses in respect of conveyance of the Insured Person to her country of origin following an accident, sickness or disease resulting in death or total disablement arising during the period of insurance.
