This follows the successful business merger between RHB Investment Bank Berhad (RHBIB) and OSK Investment Bank Berhad (OSKIB) on 13 April 2013. With the merger, the 99.43% stake of OSK Securities (Thailand) PCL previously held by OSKIB is now owned by RHBIB.

"It is an exciting time for the RHB Banking Group as we move towards positioning ourselves as a Leading Multinational Financial Services Group in the region," commented Kellee Kam, Group Managing Director.

He added that RHBIB will have a staff strength of over 3600, shareholders' funds of over RM2 billion and a comprehensive network of close to 100 offices, in seven countries across ASEAN and China.

"In Thailand, the combined strengths of RHBIB and OSKIB will create a strong regional platform which will allow us to serve our customers even better through the growing branch network of 7 offices throughout the country," said Kellee Kam.

RHB OSK Securities (Thailand) PCL aims to be one of the top brokers in the equities and futures and derivatives market.

The operations and business structure at RHB OSK Securities (Thailand) PCL remain the same and it will continue to offer comprehensive products for both its retail and institutional clients. The merger will enable the team in Thailand to provide investment banking solutions and innovative fund raising alternatives for its clients by leveraging on the RHB Banking Group's capability.
